

Thought you might like to see this photo (below) of a first grade student, Miguel, who bought an Ixil New Testament (Ixil is a Mayan language spoken in Guatemala). Every day he brings it to school in his backpack and reads it saying, "This is the same language we speak at home! I can understand this!" "Our dream for the future," says Carlos, the school principal, "is that every child will have his own copy of the New Testament in his heart language, Ixil."

Thank you for what you do in partnering with us to ensure that in this and future generations people have access to God's Word in a language and medium then understand best.
