Take It Homework

This past week, on Easter Sunday, we talked about Resurrection Power. Today we want to talk about how Resurrection Power translates into a life of freedom. Use the following questions to discuss how you might experience and live more fully the life of freedom you are offered in Christ!

Read John 8:31-36.

- What is your definition of freedom?
- When you think of freedom, what comes to mind?
- According to Jesus...
  - Does freedom come automatically when you believe in Him?
  - What does set you free?
- What do you think Jesus means when He says, "You will know the truth?"
- What false assumptions confuse the issue of freedom for the Jews (Abraham's descendants)?
- What role does sin play in the freedom we experience?
- Share some examples of how sin enslaves people. How does sin enslave you personally?
- "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." Wow! What a statement! I think Jesus is talking about more than just forgiveness of sins and entrance into heaven here. What else might He mean by this statement (based on what He says prior to this statement)?
- As a result of this teaching, what now will change about your life?
