

Pastor Jesse Giglio
June 14, 2009

Discovering Your Redemptive Story

Ephesians 2:13

"...[that] you who once were _____ have been _____."

Judges 21:25

"In those days there was _____ in Israel: every man did that which was _____."

Elimelech means _____

The problem isn't so much _____, but the _____.

Because until we understand the depths of _____, we will never understand the depths of His _____.

You threw your _____; I'm _____.

Luke 7:47

He who is _____ much, _____ much.

Your redemptive story should be a _____ for expressing God's love to the world.

Please use the space below to take notes on today's message:

Take It Homework

We encourage you to not only do these exercises on your own, but also with a group of friends, co-workers, neighbors, small group or family members.

- ◆ If someone were to ask you what the book of Ruth was about, how would you answer?
- ◆ Has the story of Ruth impacted your life? How so?
- ◆ Have you ever experienced a time in life where you felt "broke down" and far off?
- ◆ The book of Judges describes its time period as, "In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did that which was right in his own eyes." Would this description work in present day? In what ways?
- ◆ Can you relate to Elimelech? Do you make circumstance decisions often?
- ◆ Have you ever thought about the calling you have to your present environment? What does that look like?
- ◆ Have you ever been through a Naomi experience in the areas of loss? Do you still carry bitterness?
- ◆ What about staying in God's land through a famine? Can you relate to that idea? What was the outcome? Or, are you in a famine right now?
- ◆ Have you ever left the Father's House for a distant country? What was that place(s)? Did you experience grace when you came home? Or, are you still in the distance? (The Father's looking for you!)